Teamwork is the key to success in almost all school projects. The preparation of a school yearbook is no exception. Your staff has worked together to produce this first HCHS annual, each depending upon each to cooperate for creditable results.

THE HALISCOPE has required many hours of effort. All those who worked, under the direction of Bob, Tim, and Bill, sincerely hope it will afford many hours of pleasant recollection.

ADMINISTRATION

Page 7

A school is no better than the people who are responsible for the efficient operation of the school. These are the people who chart the policies of HCHS.

CLASSES

These are the reasons for the school, indeed for this year-book. From Seniors, ready to embark on new ventures, to the Eighth Graders, still new to the idea of high school education--all are important.

ATHLETICS

Giving the student body a feeling of school spirit, providing for the important role of competitive competition--these are our athletic activities--important to the overall development of our school.

ACTIVITIES

No school is complete without the organizations which give impetus to special activities and special interests. These activities teach students the all-important lesson of working with others toward some common end.

PRINCIPAL J. MARSHALL SWANSON

Dedication

This first yearbook of Halifax County High School is dedicated to the man who has dedicated himself to the service of others. This he has done with sincerity--a sincerity that breeds confidence and respect.

With a philosophy that speaks of faith, hope, and charity, he believes in the worth of the individual, he sees no problem without a solution, and he is filled with the disposition to think well of others.

Faced with every conceivable problem in school administration, he has proved his greatness. The students here offer this dedication, inadequate and cumbersome though it is, to express this truth: We are deeply thankful that J. Marshall Swanson is our principal.

Foreword

Nineteen hundred and fifty-three was an historic year for Halifax County. On September seventeenth, all high school students in the county came together for the first time, and Halifax County High School was, at last, a reality.

This is our first yearbook. Like all of our efforts in our new school, this is merely a beginning. We are sure that we must proceed cautiously, keeping our feet on solid ground even while our ambitions and aims soar in the clouds.

Here, then, is a record of our first year, told simply and unpretentiously. In almost every detail, you will find our yearbook conventional--even conservative.

The name HALISCOPE was voted the favorite by an overwhelming majority of HCHS students. It couples the first part of our school name with "scope", which means "extent or range of view".

The members of the first Senior Class of Halifax County High School hope that the thousands of people to whom this school means so much will find in this book a worthy "view" of our first year together.

J. MARSHALL SWANSON
M. S; University of Tenn.
Principal

Managing a school the size of H.C.H.S. is far from an easy task. To have the responsibility of starting a school of this size "from scratch" is far more of a Herculean task.

Mr. Swanson has managed to do both with a facility and efficiency which commands the respect and admiration of everyone who is familiar with the problems he faces.

This first year at H.C.H.S. might have been much harder, much more confusing for everyone had we not had the fortune of having Mr. Swanson at the head of the organization.

In addition to his ability as an administrator, the students at H.C.H.S. owe much to our principal as a friend--never too busy to listen and to help with the many little personal problems of a school.

Administration

Mr. Swanson has been fortunate in having Mr. Leete as a capable and energetic assistant. Mr. Leete has done much to relieve the burdens that would otherwise fall on the principal. In managing the transportation system, in making the arrangements for all interscholastic sports, and in many other ways, Mr. Leete has shown his colors.

Mr. Leete, too, shared the many problems which presented themselves in the months which preceded the actual opening of school.

Halifax County High School can well be proud of the two men who head the school administration.

Banquet

Short... but Sweet

For all of us 1953-54 has been a memorable year. The Senior Class, especially, has experienced a year of almost miraculous events.

Coming together as we did from nine separate high schools, we found that the transition to a single big school brought numerous problems. Working together we found tremendous satisfaction in solving these problems.

Actually, our first effort as a unified group was made in the spring of 1953. This meeting seemed to set a precedent. We found a unique spirit of cooperation as we made decisions regarding the design of HCHS class rings. This spirit has given us the faith that is so necessary for worthwhile accomplishments.

Since that time our class has been faced with a number of problems. The first class project undertaken during the school year was the birthday calendar. We cleared nearly $500 on the project.

This yearbook, traditionally the responsibility of the Senior Class, has called for an unusual amount of planning and adjustment to the needs of the school. Much of this work was necessarily experimental.

In all our other work as a group, and especially in the elections, we have found a spirit of cooperation and interest which we review with pride.

As the year progresses, we look forward to our Senior Play, scheduled for May 6 and 7. We have selected Maxwell Anderson's "Winterset", and the creditable presentation of such an ambitious project is now a real challenge.

We shall be the first graduates to receive high school diplomas from Halifax County High School. Our prayer is that this great institution will always be a challenge and an inspiration to the youth of our county.

As this section of the annual was finished before complete organization of activities for this year had been completed, some of these organizations will not be listed for this year. Seniors participating in these activities will be found in the group pictures for the new organizations.

When reading the entries in this section of the HALISCOPE, some conflict of positions will be apparent. These listings represent all of the activities of the Senior Class in all of the nine previous high schools of the county.

Halifax County High School closed out its first football season with a respectable 6-3-0 record. This is a commendable record, considering the fact that a large number of the boys had no experience in football before this year.

Head Coach Charlie Suttentfield and Line Coach Bill Bennett turned in an excellent job of converting a green squad into a winning ball club.

This page is sponsored by WILBORN'S HARDWARE and FULLER'S MEN'S SHOP. Both of these firms have exhibited their interest in athletics at H.C.H.S., and have staunchly supported the teams.

The girls, under the direction of Mrs. E. D. Patterson, have had a very successful year, beginning the year with a 50-5 win over Roxboro. Since then, there have been ups and downs, but fortunately more ups than downs. With good strength on the bench, we can expect just as much of next years starters.

Future Farmer Goals

The goals of the future farmers are many; all are worthy of the great results secured by this organization. The HCHS F. F. A. chapter is the largest one in the east, possibly the largest in the entire nation.

These young men are in training for their future activities in the field of agriculture. They study modern methods in agriculture classes, and continue their interests in this organization. They compete in various fields, such as raising livestock, judging timber, and other educational activities.

These boys will certainly make the finest agricultural experts in the years to come.

They were put on their mettle early in the school year when the school grounds had to be planted in grass. In this project, as in all others during the year, they have shown their ability and initiative

Cheerleaders

No athletic team can function at its best without support from its fans. Our cheerleaders are the ones who organize that support so necessary for winning teams. The cheerleaders, under the direction of Mrs. Hanlon, practice every day during the athletic seasons. They have been a great morale boosting influence at all athletic contests, and deserve the appreciation of the entire student body.

The staff of THE STAR put in many long hours in order that the school might have a newspaper every two weeks. Starting before the beginning of school, members of the staff solicited advertising, with marked success. Then school started, and a drive was made for student subscriptions. From a slow start, circulation built up from "scratch" to one thousand copies each week.

THE STAR contributed a great deal to the organization of the school and the solidifying of latent school spirit.

The staff of the 1954 Yearbook have worked a great deal in the hope that the book will give a good overall picture of the activities at H.C.H.S. As the first yearbook, this volume was organized in the face of many difficulties. The staff hopes that this volume will be of value to the students for whom it was compiled--now, and in the years to come.

As Director of Student Publications, Mr. Frank Thompson deserves a great deal of credit. He has been the motivating force behind both the newspaper and the yearbook. His experience and advice have been invaluable to the staffs of both Student Publications.

MR. BROWN directs

The H. C. H. S. band, under the direction of Archie H. Brown, was organized in Sept. of 1953. Only 4 of the 120 who signed to take band had had previous musical experience. From "Yankee Doodle" to Chopin's "Rainbow Theme", the struggle to professionalize their selections has been difficult.

Then came the big day. Their first public performance; the dedication of the school flag. Following this the band's biggest performance, a concert preceeding the dedication of H. C. H. S. Not to be content with this, they played for every home basketball game and at the Santa Claus parade in South Boston.

In the future the band will journey to the District Music Festival in Charlottesville. Three outstanding musicians, Dale Tetterton, John Ranson, and David Tetterton will be members of the All-State Band in Grundy. In the summer John Ranson, a representative from the band, will go to the University Music Appreciation Festival.

So with flutes and flats, sax and sharps, clarinets and concerts, Brown and Bach, the band goes forth to resounding applause

The H.C.H.S. Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs. Martha Penick, rose to unbelievable heights of musical distinction. Their first big public performance; the dedication of the school, followed by radio and personal appearances.

With its' full 130 members, the Glee Club will go to the Music Festival at Charlottesville. And the crowning performance of the year, an operetta in the spring.

Here's hopes of success to a great Glee Club with an even greater future.

D. E. Club

The D. E. Club, with co-ordinator John Hockman, is another H. C. H. S. gift to the business world as reflected in Halifax County. These students learn the selling end of merchandising. They are employed in various business concerns, learning to be the sales leaders of the future when they have completed high school.

While this is not the first D. E. group in Halifax County, we are expecting it to be by far the most outstanding group of its kind in the county and in the entire state.

This page is sponsored by the JEWEL BOX, South Boston's Friendly Credit Jeweler. The JEWEL BOX has always supported H. C. H. S. projects without hesitation; we appreciate their interest and support.

D. O. Club

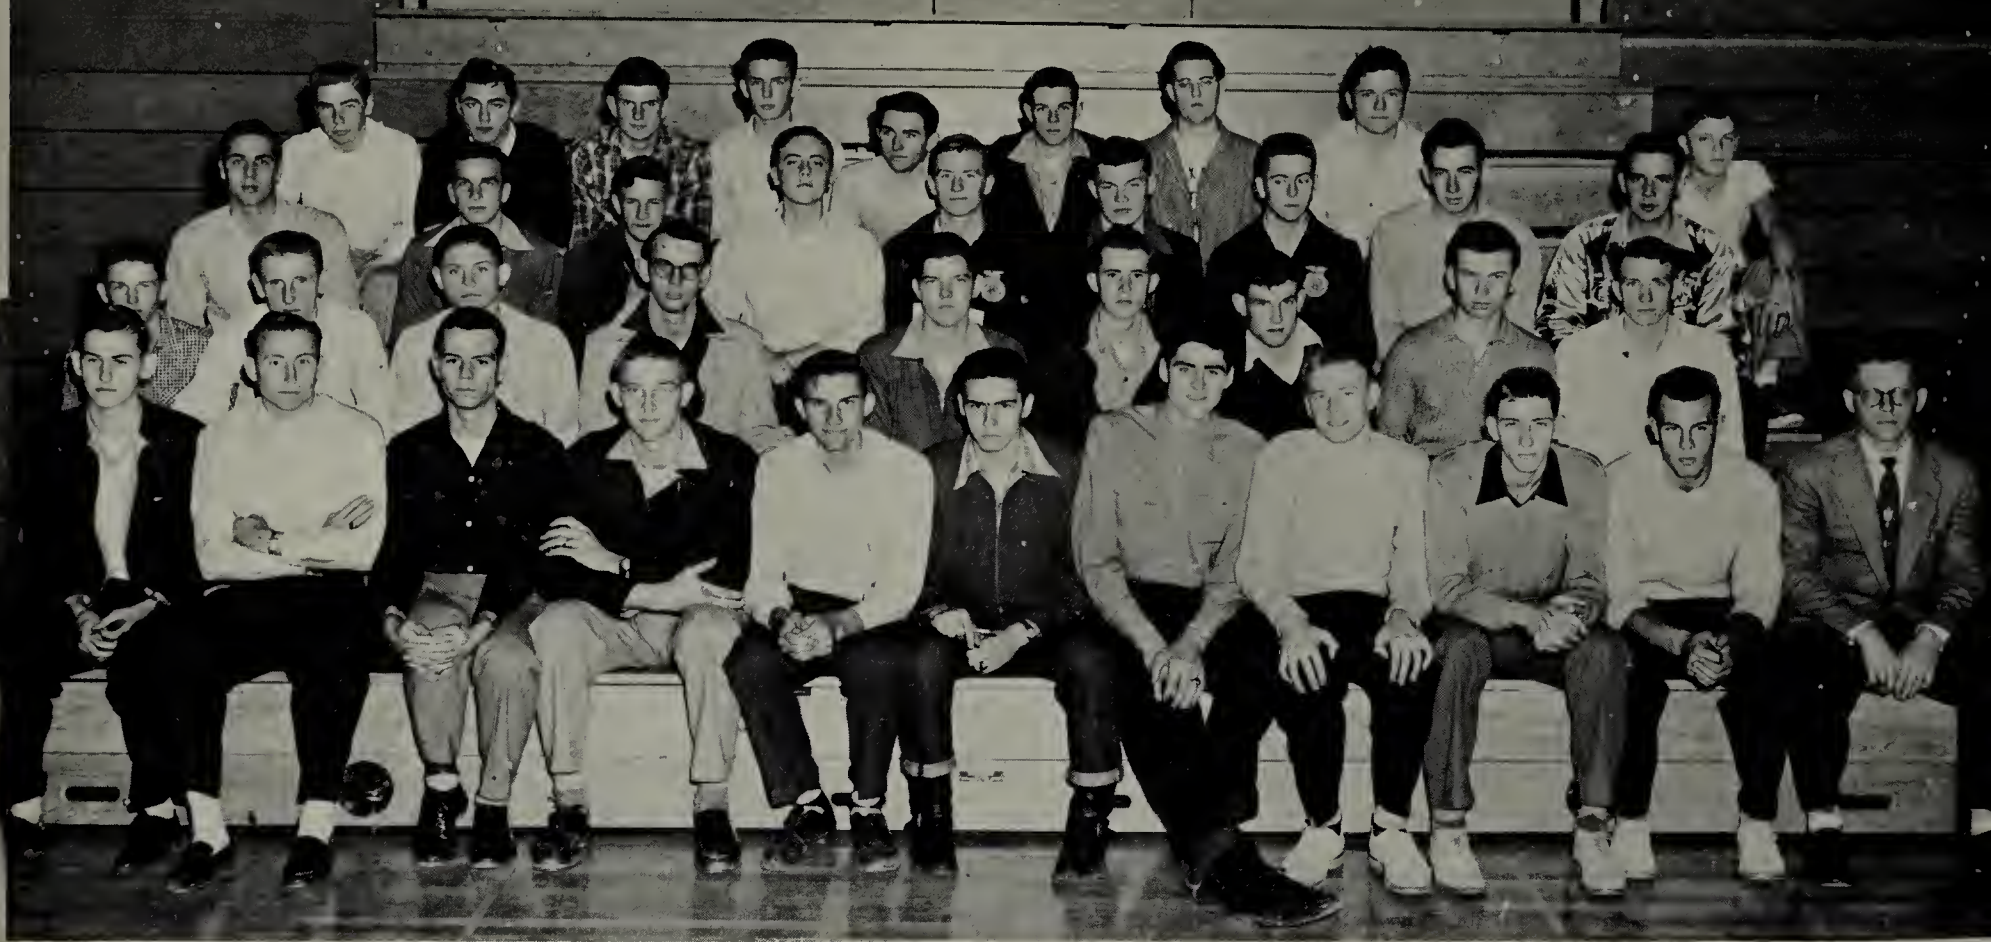

Under the direction of Mr. Hughes, these boys have formed the first D. O. Club in Halifax County. This is a practical sort of club in which the boys are engaged in learning various occupations, training themselves for jobs when they finish high school. In the morning, they are students; when afternoon rolls around, they are workmen, learning useful trades for lifetime occupations.

A club of this kind can certainly go far in helping train young men for future occupations in Halifax County. This is another way in which our school is helping to build a stronger community.

This page is sponsored by E. J. WYATT CHEVROLET in South Boston. Mr. Wyatt and the staff of his firm are staunch supporters of our school. School projects owe much to businessmen like Mr. Wyatt.

FOURTH ROW: Wayne Cole, Buck Conner, Holland, Lawrence Pugh, Henry Hunt, Jr., David Dallas, Henry Womack, Frank Beasley, Richard Hobgood, Guy Haskins.

At the first of the school year, much concern was voiced by people in the county about student bus drivers. These boys, under the able direction of Mr. Leete have banished all doubts about their ability by their fine record this year.

Every student who rides the buses day after day can attest to the ability of these boys.

The Quill and Scroll is an honor society for the recognition of outstanding achievement among high school journalists. Members of the staffs of the school paper and the yearbook are eligible for membership, provided that they have done exceptional work.

The Quill and Scroll at this school is one of the highest honor groups to which students can be elected, for it emphasizes ability, application, and scholarship.

This page is sponsored by A. R. VIA and BROTHER, Jewelers and LEGGETT'S DEPARTMENT STORE. These firms have supported both the yearbook and the school paper.

Library Helpers

Keeping our library functioning smoothly and efficiently is no small job, for hundreds of students pass through this department every school day. There are books to be checked out, books to be returned, fines to be paid, and books to be returned to the shelves.

Miss Woltz, Mrs. Myers and Mrs. Stevens give much of the credit for the work done each day to these girls, who have given up their study halls to the service of the school.

Every day of the year, they spend an entire period working in the library. It would be impossible to carry out the functions of the library without their help.

Each girl on the library staff deserves special commendation for their unselfish gift to the school.

Point-After-Touchdown Club

Carrying out and complementing the goals of the Touchdown Club, we have this group of students who have banded together to "boost" anywhere a boost is needed. Sponsored by Mr. Thompson, and led by President Bill Towler, they have done a remarkable job this year.

The members completely financed and carried out a banquet for members of the football team--something extra that did not come in the province of any other school organization. They have been available to help any group which needs a spirited boost--the newspaper, the yearbook, and other groups.

School spirit and interest is the only membership requirement. With a group actively working in such a spirit, it is not surprising that so much has been accomplished.

LEFT TO RIGHT, SEATED: Fran Easley, Gay Merle Smoot, Nancy McDowell, Audrey Ford, President Bill Towler, Jane Kell, Nancy Dunkley, Gail McCrary, Barbara Austin, Nancy Swanson. The Science Club, as it is organized here, is new to Halifax County schools. Under the capable and interested direction of Mrs. Remsburg and Miss Blackwell the club has grown in membership and popularity.

With the school's well-planned and complete installations for science study, great things can be expected from the Science Clubs of future years--not that there aren't several members this year with scientific promise.

The entire club has worked on a project for collecting rocks, soil, water, flora and fauna from all corners of the county. They have analyzed and organized this material as a project for the year. This will serve as a basis for future scientific exploration.

THANKS, MR. THOMPSON

It is fitting that we should pause in the midst of these activities to which he has given so generously to thank our advisor, Mr. Thompson.

We appreciate the interest which he has shown in this project--in spite of the fact that every moment of his day is full of so many things to do. We value his experience and judgment in the decisions which were made during the year.

We feel that HCHS is unusually lucky in having a person of Mr. Thompson's capabilities and personal interest so closely associated with such school projects as this.

We salute Mr. Thompson as an advisor and a friend.

Junior Play

The Junior Class presented the Junior Play "Green Valley" on February 5 and 6. Directed by Frank L. Thompson, the production was acclaimed a tremendous success.

Characters in the play included Tommy Pulliam, Suzy Matzner, Jimmy Hall, Alex Lacy, Ramona Jordan, Grace White, Garnett Riddle, Harry Yeaman, Doris Victry, Martha Ann Snead, Fran Easley, Bruce Myers, Edmond Chaney, Eddie Black, Charles Wilkinson, Bruce Norman, Howard Lester, Nancy McDowell, Rosalie Weatherford, Elizabeth Conner, Dorothy Yates and Bobbie Gassaway.

Scenes From The Play

Varsity Varietier

Few schools can boast an activity to compare with VARSITY VARIETIES, the school radio program broadcast each school day for one-half hour. Under the guidance of Mr. Frank Thompson and the staff of the program, this activity has aided immeasurably in helping the people of the county to understand this new school.

In addition, the program has provided pure listening enjoyment for students and patrons with its "variety" of broadcasts.

Many thanks go out to station WHLF for its generosity in providing radio time and valuable assistance.

VARIETIES staff, FRONT TO BACK: Tommy Chaney, Buck Conner, Norman Hupp. Buck and Tommy work in the control room, while Norman supervises programs.

Homecoming

The football squad chose Ann Burgess to reign over the first HCHS Homecoming celebration.

The Homecoming Game matched Randolph-Henry High School against the Blue Comets and ended with the score 25-13 in favor of the home team.

At half-time Ann was crowned queen of the Homecoming by Co-Captain Enzie Childrey. Her attendants were Jackie Green and Betty Rogers Vaughan.

Following the game, a reception and dance were held in the school cafeteria. Alumni from former county schools and students from Randolph-Henry were guests of Halifax County High School.

Although the Beta Club has not been organized fully in the school this year, it is important that the people who make up this scholastic and leadership honor society be recognized.

All of these Seniors were initiated into the honor society in some school prior to this year.

They represent the top level of scholastic attainment.

Junior Beta Club Members

These Juniors, too, deserve commendation for being members of the Beta Club. They, like the Senior members of the club, were chosen for outstanding scholarship and leadership ability in one of the former high schools. This group will form the nucleus for a school chapter of the National Honor Society, which will be organized in the future, replacing the Beta Club.

Home Room Presidents

Along with the overall class officer groups, the homeroom presidents of the numerous homeroom groups in school deserve special mention. For one thing, they are a group of leaders. This, in itself, is important, for good leaders are essential in the homeroom as they are in other phases of school life.

These presidents have had charge of many important voting opportunities throughout the school year. When teams, publications, and the like were named, it was this group which had the responsibility of managing the various elections. They deserve attention with our other groups.

Student Council

This page is sponsored by NEWBERRY'S and BOSTON BAKERY, two additional firms which belong on the school honor roll.

This first Student Council will serve in a valuable function, for they will be the ones who will write constitution which will guide future groups.

This group includes one representative elected from each of the homerooms in school. It will serve until late spring, when next year's council will be elected and will take over for the rest of the year.

The students in this organization will not form a student government. Rather, they will attempt to influence guide, and suggest for such things as the cafeteria, pictured below.

HCHS is proud to number among its students six boys who have attained the highest rank of scouting--the coveted Eagle rank. These boys deserve commendation for this achievement alone. But in addition to this, they have performed a service to the school every day by attending to the raising and lowering of the United States flag. Under the direction of Mr. Leete, they have performed this duty faithfully and well.

Dedication Ceremony

Dr. Dowell J. Howard, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, delivers keynote address at dedication.

Perhaps the most significant single event of the school year was the dedication of the new building. Dr. Dowell J. Howard, on Sunday, December 6, 1953, delivered the dedicatory address to a throng of Halifax County citizens which filled the school gymnasium to overflowing.

The dedication formally marked the accomplishment of a tremendous stride in education in this section of Virginia.

Following is the foreword of the program used in the dedication service:

"It is with a feeling of genuine pride that we present to the citizens of Halifax County and to our friends beyond the county, the building of the new Halifax County High School.

"The work of the architect and the artisan is finished. They have constructed a building. The character and strength of the boys and girls of Halifax County will create the institution.

"May this dedication service be in truth a consecration of its resources to the cultural, material, and spiritual enrichment of our community.

On November 11, 1953, the student body witnessed one of the most impressive Armistice Day programs ever seen. The Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion Post 8 presented a United States Flag to our school. In the scene above, members of the two organizations are raising the flag for the first time. Principal J. Marshall Swanson, center, received the flag for the school.

High Lights

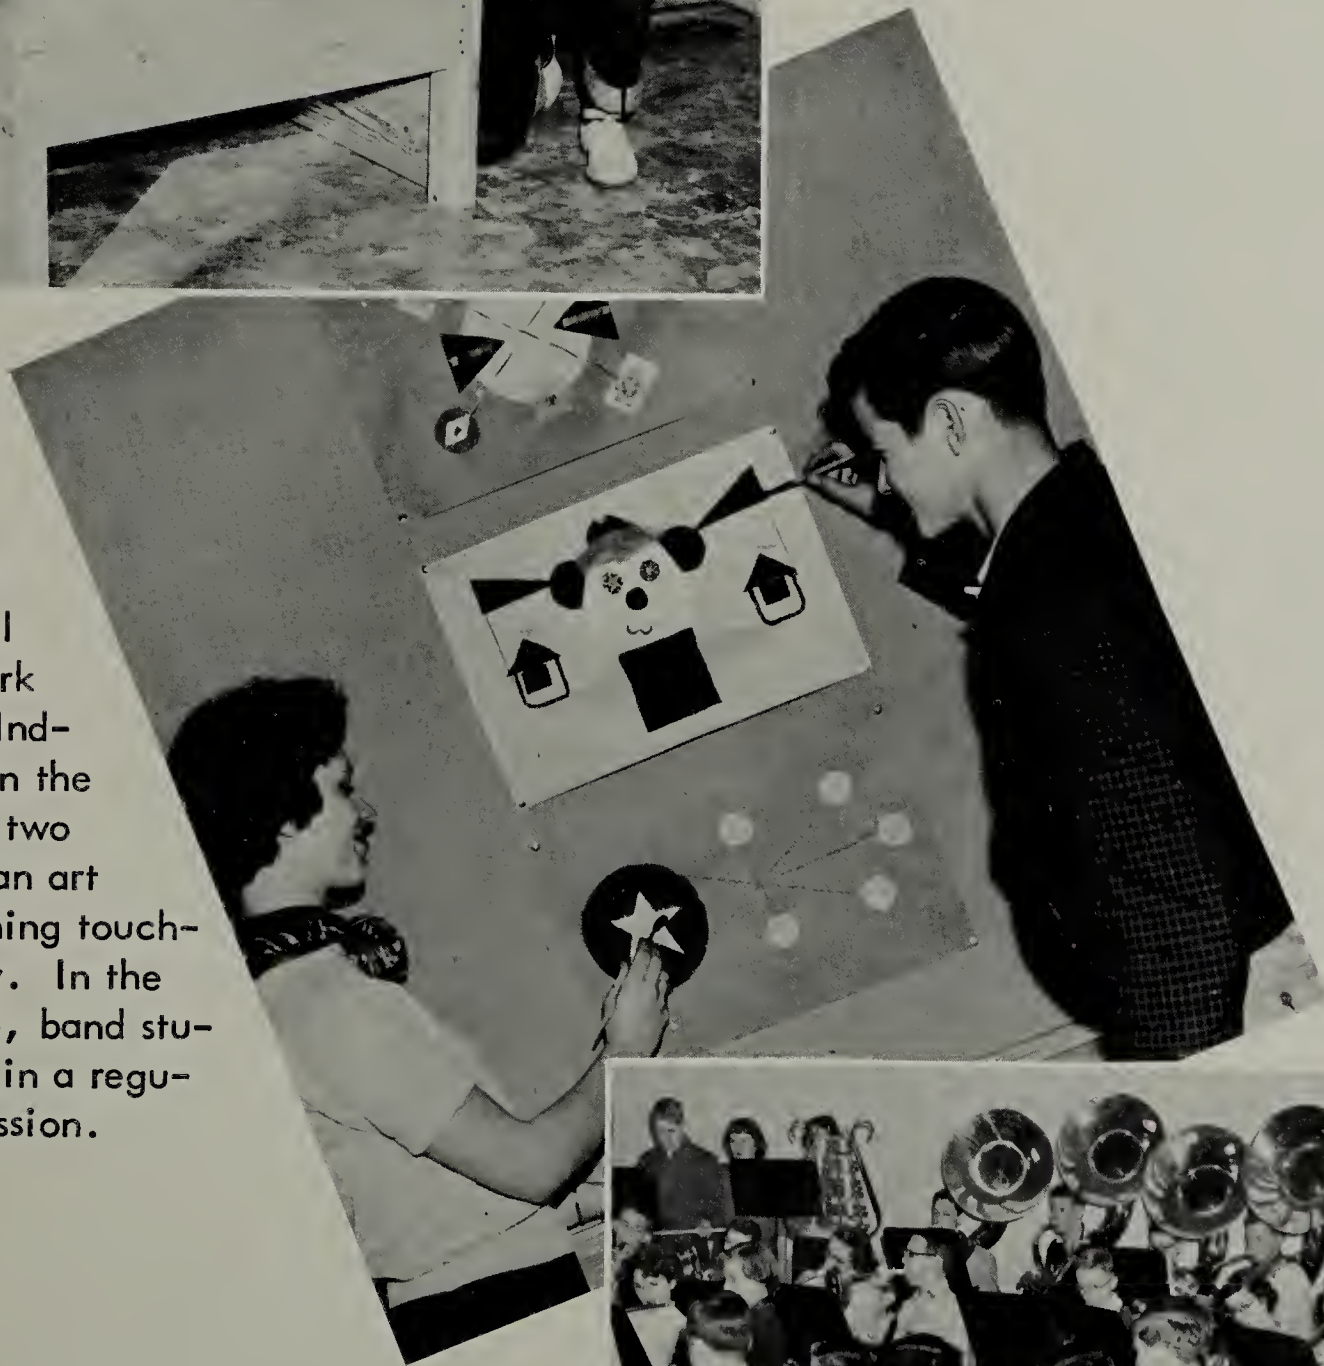

In the picture to the left Keith Shelton is seen accepting a check from R.L. Lacy, Superintendent of Halifax County schools, for the first subscription to THE STAR.

THESE ARE SOME OF THE "NEW"
OPPORTUNITIES OFFERED BY HCHS

Members of the football squad enjoy a banquet given in their honor by the Point-After Touchdown Club. It is hoped that this will be an annual affair.

AND SOME MORE WORDS

School publications all over America look to the enterprising merchants in thousands of communities to use school yearbooks and newspapers as an effective medium for advertising. Our school, the Senior Class, and especially the staff of THE HALISCOPE, are very much aware of the business men who cooperate for the financial support of this annual. Students in school are greatly impressed by the attitudes of the individual business men as they affect school publications.

The day of "donations to such school projects has long since passed. An advertisement in the school yearbook or newspaper does not necessarily mean an immediate deluge of buyers. But the very fibre of a concern is spotlighted by the interest, or lack of it, displayed by the management in the biggest business in the county--which is the school.

We of Halifax County High School shall not forget the interest shown by the advertisers on the opposite page or in our newspaper. We also contacted several other men who are in business.
